

KORI BUSTARD

Ardeotis kori

Order: Gruiformes Family: Otididae

Countries breeding populations

Neither subspecies populations have been reported. However viable breeding populations are found in the following countries :

Ardeotis k. kori:

Namibia, Zambia, Botswana, western Zimbabwe, South Africa and the Limpopo Valley of Mozambique

Ardeotis k. struthiunculus :

Tanzania, Kenya, Uganda, Ethiopia and Sudan

IUCN: least concern

The kori bustard has two subspecies with two distinct ranges . The Ardeotis kori struthiunculus lives in eastern Africa. Ranging from Ethiopia to Sudan south to Kenya and Uganda. The southern subspecies Ardeotis kori kori is restricted to the western part of southern Africa. Countries within the range are Botswana, Namibia, Zambia, Zimbabwe, South Africa and Mozambique. The kori bustard prefers open grassland and sparsely wooded savannas. The two populations are separated by the miombo woodlands.

