

SWAINSON'S TOUCAN

Ramphastos swainsonii

Order: Piciformes Family: Ramphastidae

Range: Honduras Costa Rica, Nicaragua Panama, Colombia and Ecuador

IUCN: Least Concern

USFW ESA: not listed

CITES: Not listed

MBTA: not listed

Considered by some as the northern subspecies of the yellow throated toucan the Swainson's toucan ranges from Honduras to Colombia. This species is very adaptable and can be observed in disturbed areas like gardens and ranches as long as large trees are accessible. Their native habitat consists of low elevation moist forest